

Do Something Different for Chanukah this Year!

Holiday V-Mail 1944

The National Museum of American Jewish Military History invites you to a special celebration for the first night of Chanukah.

Join us for an eventful evening as Chaplain Michael Bloom brings the story of the Maccabees' military victory to life before the lighting of the first candle.

Featuring

Traditional Chanukah songs and free Chanukah fare including latkes, jelly donuts, and gelt.

*Kosher dietary laws will be observed

Take a tour of the museum to learn how American Jews have served this country and discover how Chanukah has been celebrated in the theater of war.

Chaplain Herbert Teitelbaum and G.I. at Hanukkah menorah lighting, 1952 Korean War

Date: December 20
Time: 6:30 - 8:00 pm
Where: NMAJMH
1811 R Street NW
Washington, DC 20009

 facebook.com\nmajmh

Bring your menorah and help us celebrate the Festival

of Lights

RSVP's suggested to Mary Westley at: mwestley@nmajmh.org or (202) 265-6280 x511
Please RSVP by December 15

Sponsored by The National Museum of American Jewish Military History, the Jewish War Veterans of the USA, and the Jewish Study Center.